The 14th ENROAC (European Network for Research in Organisational & Accounting Change) Conference will take place at the University of Tartu from June 10–12, 2025. This international conference will bring together scholars, practitioners, and leaders to discuss the latest trends and research in organisational and accounting changes.

The conference will begin on the afternoon of June 10 with a Practitioner’s Day, focused on the theme “Changing times for the accounting community.” On June 11–12, academic parallel sessions and professional development workshops for early-career researchers will take place.

Renowned scholars such as Professor Marko Järvenpää (University of Vaasa, Finland), Professor Kari Lukka (University of Turku, Finland), and Professor Paolo Quattrone (University of Manchester, UK) will present at the event. The conference will also feature presentations from both researchers and practitioners.

Early Bird Tickets (available until April 10, 2025):

- General admission: €490
- PhD Student admission: €320

Regular Tickets (starting April 11 and available until April 25, 2025):

- General admission: €540
- PhD Student admission: €350

Don’t miss the opportunity to secure your ticket before the deadlines! Tickets are limited, so act fast to reserve your spot!
